Introduction

Recently the Rutland Historical Society presented an episode on Italian immigration to Rutland in its Historically Speaking television series. Viewer interest in this episode led to the formation of an ad hoc committee of the Society that is working on documenting the Italian community of the Rutland area. The Society hopes that this research will document who the families were, their relationship with other Italian families and the towns in Italy from which they came. The availability of the 1920 and the 1930 censuses as well as the Ellis Island web site and search engine through the internet make this research project possible, although long and tedious. The Ellis Island web site can be reached at www.ellislandrecords.org.

In working on this project, the Society found a Directory of the Fifth Grand Masquerade Ball given by the Rutland Lodge # 414 of the Sons of Italy on 7 February 1921 at Dunn's Hall on the fourth floor of the Dunn Building at 14 Merchants Row. This listing of over 500 Italians in the Rutland area is not a complete listing but it does give a most helpful list of Italian names as written by native speakers. While many of the names have suffered further anglicization today, the data is a useful tool in correctly identifying families whose names were garbled or anglicized in the 1920 census. In addition, the directory includes addresses of where people lived in 1921.

On 1 March 1914 a group of Italians recently arrived from southern Italy organized a mutual aid society in Rutland. About 40 members participated in an organizational meeting at which they elected Domenico Paolucci as president and Gerado Ricci as vice-president. Other officers included Antonio Bizzarro, Angelo Iannetti, Alfredo Francioni, Giuseppe Ragosta, Giovanni Di Lorenzo and Nicola Romano. On 11 July 1915 the local group received a charter for its Christopher Columbus Lodge # 414 of the Sons of Italy.

The 1921 masquerade ball was perhaps the most successful of any Italian dancing function held in Rutland in many years. Over 600 people, including Mayor and Mrs. James C. Dunn and other non-Italian dignitaries, attended the event in Dunn's Hall. An orchestra under the direction of John Cocklin provided music for dancing.

The Directory is published with original spellings except for the correction of obvious typographical errors. It is hoped that this may stimulate additional interest in the Society's Italian project and also be of interest to our readers. Contact Michael Dwyer at 483-6993 if you have information to contribute or would like to help with the project.
